

SAVE THE DATE!

33rd ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM
OF THE MICHIGAN PSYCHOANALYTIC SOCIETY

AGGRESSION

On the Clinical Stage and on the World Stage: Psychoanalytic Perspectives

with distinguished guest speakers

VAMIK VOLKAN, M.D.

ANA-MARIA RIZZUTO, M.D.

March 8, 2008 Hotel Baronette, Novi

In this Symposium, we explore contemporary psychoanalytic insights into the human desire, and the capacity, to aggress and to harm, via a dialogue with two leading contributors to the field.

Dr. Volkan, nominated three times for the Nobel Peace Prize for his work on intergroup aggression, is currently Senior Erikson Scholar at the Austen Riggs Center. Dr. Rizzuto is a major contributor to the contemporary integration of psychoanalytic theories of aggression, with a focus on the clinical setting. Rich case material will be presented.

* ADDITIONAL UPCOMING MICHIGAN PSYCHOANALYTIC SOCIETY PROGRAMS *

January 12, 2008
2-4 pm

"INTERSUBJECTIVITY AND THE EGO"

Merton Shill, Ph.D.
Farmington Hills, MPS Auditorium, 32841 Middlebelt Rd.

February 9
2-4 pm

"A CASE OF A SPIDER PHOBIA: THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CLINICAL AND LABORATORY INVESTIGATION"

Howard Shevrin, Ph.D.
Farmington Hills, MPS Auditorium, 32841 Middlebelt Rd.

April 5
2-4 PM

*22nd ANNUAL VISITING PROFESSOR, MICHIGAN
PSYCHOANALYTIC INSTITUTE:* Linda Mayes, M.D. (New Haven)
Farmington Hills, MPS Auditorium, 32841 Middlebelt Rd.

May 17
2-4 PM

"I WANT TO BE ALL GONE': PSYCHOANALYTIC THERAPY OF A THREE YEAR OLD FAILURE-TO-THRIVE CHILD"

Adele Kaufman, MSW (Chicago)
Ann Arbor, 4448 East Hall, University of Michigan

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT ANY OF OUR PROGRAMS, PLEASE CONTACT
MONICA SIMMONS, MICHIGAN PSYCHOANALYTIC INSTITUTE AND SOCIETY, 248-851-3380 OR 734-213-3399